

PIANIST TRAINING AND RESPONSABILITIES

During their residence, pianists in the Atelier lyrique will gain crucial professional experience while mastering their skills as repetiteurs and coaches. Pianists are expected to prepare operatic scores for rehearsals with Opéra de Montréal and Atelier lyrique productions while taking part in public performances, lessons, classes, sessions with industry professionals, and other events.

Through professional development and artistic training opportunities, including classes on diction, repertoire, style, working with conductors, new creation, entrepreneurship/media training, and performance psychology, pianists will gain all the tools and experience needed to lead a fulsome and rewarding career as a musical collaborator in opera.
